

Gyula Molnár

date and place of birth: 31 October 1946, Gyula, Hungary

School leaving certificate:

1965, Képző- és Iparművészeti Gimnázium (Creative and Applied Art Secondary, graphics)

Diploma: 1971, Magyar Iparművészeti Főiskola / Hungarian University of Craft and Design (Majoring in Typography and Graphics)

Career

1971–1989 Freelance graphic designer

1989 Teaching in the Faculty of Graphic Arts of the Hungarian University of Craft and Design

1990, Art Director of GGK (international advertising agency)

1991–1998 H-ArtDirectors – a communication and design agency founded by me and two colleagues from the university

1992 Associate professor at the Hungarian University of Craft and Design

1998–2006 Head of the Visual Communication Department of the Hungarian University of Craft and Design

2001 Successful habilitation (DLA)

2002 University professor

2006–2013 Head of Graphic Design Faculty of the Moholy-Nagy University of Art and Design Budapest

from 2014 Teacher and Freelance graphic designer

Works

1971–1989 Designing cultural and commercial posters and image concepts; Designing all image concepts and company communication relating to Hungary's appearance in international exhibitions;

1989–2020 Designing company communication, campaign design, media design, exhibition design, image design illustration,

1971–2020 Independent activities

Twenty-one home and international prizes and awards (Lifeworks prizes).

Thirteen home and international individual exhibitions.

More than ninety international and home group exhibitions.

Monograph and book

2006 Tibor Gönczi Gebhardt graphic designer, lifework MOME

2008 Gyula Molnár, My visual language, Eciklopédia Publishing

2010 grafika100, The 100th anniversary of the Graphic Design

program at the Moholy-Nagy University of Art and Design Budapest MOME

2012 Gyula Molnár, Hommage à Poszter, 100POSTER, Park Publishing